

Elk Horn Coal Hunting Access Area

Floyd, Letcher, Knott, and Pike Counties, KY

1990s—2010s

This AOI in Letcher County, KY shows terrain transformation by mining activities. Once the site of several active strip mines, the area has been reclaimed and reforested for public use. Areas in pink show mountain top removal, while areas in green show valley fills. Thinner ridges highlighted in pink represent previous strip mines.
